Anti-Bullying Policy

1. Context

Wellsway School will not tolerate bullying. Every member of our school has the right to come to school without fear of being threatened, intimidated, mocked or abused. We all have a responsibility to make sure that bullying is not part of life at our school. It can make people feel miserable and insecure. In its worst forms it can ruin people’s lives. Students or staff who witness bullying must tell a member of staff. Not telling means that the student being bullied may continue to suffer and the aggressor may carry on, probably with other students too. People who bully need help. Helping them to understand their target’s feelings and the effect of their behaviour on them (developing their empathy), teaching them to stand to up to peer pressure from others, giving them support to manage the problems they are facing in their own lives – all of these things can change bullying behaviour for the good. Wellsway School is committed to addressing this. This policy gives a clear methodology for staff to follow and the range of actions available when dealing with issues of bullying.

“The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.”

Edmund Burke (1729-1797)

Wellsway School strives to ensure that all students feel safe and secure whilst they are at school. We recognise that the passage through adolescence can be challenging at times, but it is pleasing to report that the following research completed on our students reflects that they perceive Wellsway School to be a safe and supportive learning environment. Wellsway School seek to continually reflect and improve our strategies used in relation to anti-bullying.

This policy reflects updated national guidance and was written in conjunction with the anti-bullying adviser for Bath and North East Somerset Council, a staff focus group and our Student Council.

The Health-Related Behaviour Survey

The Health-Related Behaviour Survey, developed by the Schools Health Education Unit, is designed for young people of secondary school age. The survey has been developed over 30 years by health and education professionals, and over a million students have taken part. In the last ten years, over four thousand schools and colleges have participated. Data from the survey is used to evaluate current performance in relation to preventative safeguarding actions including anti-bullying, inform planning decisions as well as being used in the classroom as the stimulus for discussion with students.

The survey is undertaken every two years by Year 8 and 10 students in all secondary schools in Bath and North East Somerset.

In 2015 and 2017 the responses from students at Wellsway School reflected that the school has created an environment where students feel safe due to staff dealing effectively with very rare instances of bullying, online bullying and/or use of derogatory or aggressive behaviour.

When compared with schools nationally and in B&NES Wellsway School demonstrates outstanding performance in the following areas:

- Students are not afraid of going to school because of bullying
- Students are not being bullied by someone at school in the last 12 months
- Students are not being bullied by someone on school transport in the last 12 months
- The school takes bullying seriously
- The school’s teaching of online safety
- The school’s teaching of gender identity
- Students are not receiving nasty messages via texts or social media.

The Wellsway School Anti-Bullying Policy should be read in conjunction with other relevant policies.

2. What does the law say?

This policy has been constructed mindful of the following acts:

- The Education and Inspections Act 2006
  Section 89 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 provides that maintained schools must have measures to encourage good behaviour and prevent all forms of bullying amongst students. These measures should be part of the school’s behaviour policy which must be communicated to all students, school staff and parent.

- The Equality Act 2010
  The Equality Act 2010 replaces previous anti-discrimination laws with a single Act. It replaces the three previous public sector equality duties for race, disability and gender, and also covers age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.

  The Duty has three aims. It requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to:
  2.1 Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act; and
  2.2 Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it; and
  2.3 Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

- The Education Act 2011
  The Education Act 2011 gives teachers stronger powers to tackle cyber-bullying by providing a specific power to search for and, if necessary, delete inappropriate images (or files) on electronic devices, including mobile phones.

- Safeguarding Children and Young People
  Under the Children Act 1989 a bullying incident should be addressed as a child protection concern when there is ‘reasonable cause to suspect that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer, significant harm’.

- Keeping Children Safe in Education 2018
  Keeping Children Safe in Education (KCSiE) 2018 is statutory guidance from the Department for Education issued under Section 175 of the Education Act 2002. KCSiE 2018 reinforces that all staff should recognise that children are capable of abusing their peers. Schools should ensure their Child Protection Policy includes procedures to minimise the risk of peer on peer abuse and sets out how allegations of peer on peer abuse will be investigated and dealt with. The policy should reflect the different forms peer on peer abuse can take, make clear that abuse is abuse and should never be tolerated or passed off as “banter” or “part of growing up”. It should be clear as to how victims of peer on peer abuse will be supported. The Wellsway MAT Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy explains how Wellsway School will respond in relation to peer on peer abuse. The Wellsway School Anti-Bullying Policy explains in detail how the school will respond to this specific aspect of peer on peer abuse.

Bullying outside school premises

Wellsway School has the power to discipline pupils for misbehaving outside the school premises “to such an extent as is reasonable”. This can relate to any bullying incidents occurring anywhere off the school premises, such as on school or public transport, outside the local shops, or in a town or village centre.

3. Rationale

The Wellsway School Anti-Bullying Policy is an integral part of the Child Protection and Safeguarding processes at Wellsway School. It outlines clear guidance in relation to how the school will respond to incidents of bullying. All staff understand that bullying and its many forms is a classification of peer on peer abuse. As a result the correct implementation of this document by staff is crucial to ensure students at Wellsway School are protected from abuse.

Bullying is a form of anti-social behaviour that has no place in this school or any community. Bullying is defined as deliberately hurtful behaviour, repeated over time, where it is difficult for those being bullied to defend themselves. It can take many forms, but the main types of bullying are:

- physical – hitting, kicking
- taking or damaging belongings
- verbal – name calling, insulting, making offensive remarks
- misuse of new technologies – sending messages on mobile phones or social media
- indirect – spreading nasty stories about someone, exclusions from social groups, being made the subject of malicious rumours.

Bullying can make the victim feel distressed, nervous, hurt or worried. The bully’s actions may or may not be on purpose and may involve encouraging others to cause upset.

This type of behaviour involves one person or group having all the power and someone else having none, leaving someone feeling helpless to prevent it or put a stop to it.

Bullying is often motivated by prejudice against particular groups. When incidences of bullying are analysed across the UK the following themes are often found to be used as a basis for the bullying or aggression:

- Racism
• Colour
• Sexism
• Homophobia targeted at lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans and queer (LGBTQ) pupils
• Ability
• Special educational needs and/or disability (SEND)
• Family
• Looked after children
• Adopted children
• Young Carers
• Success
• Failure
• Religion

• Culture
• Appearance – size, height, weight, dress, personal features
• Language/speech
• Social Class
• Nationality

Schools have a legal duty to ensure prejudiced based bullying is dealt with in schools. Under the Education and Inspections Act (2006), Head teachers, with the advice and guidance of governors and the assistance of school staff, must identify and implement measures to promote good behaviour, respect for others and self-discipline amongst students and to prevent all forms of bullying. This includes the prevention of prejudice-based bullying related to all of the themes stated above.

Keeping Children Safe in Education 2018 reinforces that students with special educational needs (SEN) and disabilities can face additional safeguarding challenges. All staff need to be aware that additional barriers can exist when recognising abuse for these groups of students. This would include the potential for children with SEN and disabilities being disproportionally impacted by behaviours such as bullying, without outwardly showing any signs.

4. How do we educate our students in relation to bullying?

From their arrival in Year 7, students are given the very clear message that any form of bullying or unpleasant behaviour is neither welcome nor tolerated at Wellsway School. This is reiterated in assemblies, in tutor groups and through the curriculum, particularly in subjects such as PSHE, English and Religious Studies.

Wellsway School creates an ethos of positive behaviour where students treat one another and the school staff with respect because they know that this is the right way to behave. The school values reinforce respect for others and this fundamental aspect of school life permeates all areas of the school curriculum.

Wellsway School has developed a sophisticated approach where intelligence is gathered through analysis of behaviour data, student voice and staff voice about issues between students which might provoke conflict. With this in mind; specific focussed strategies are developed to prevent bullying occurring in the first place. The strategies frequently involve talking to pupils about issues of difference, perhaps in lessons, through dedicated events or projects, or through assemblies.

Every year we hold an anti-bullying week in November and mark National Safer Internet Day in February.

Student led approaches to anti-bullying at Wellsway School

Wellsway School Anti-Bullying Policy
The annual focus areas for these approaches will be directed by feedback received in relation to trends of bullying and prejudiced or discriminatory based behaviour. In recent years student led approaches have included:

Anti-Bullying Ambassadors

A key part of the school’s approach to anti-bullying is the formation of the student led group of Wellsway School Anti-Bullying Ambassadors. The group has received external training and are supported by weekly meetings with an allocated member of staff.

The Anti-Bullying Ambassadors have been introduced at Wellsway School as a way to support our students to tackle bullying and improve anti-bullying practice in their school. This is based on the belief that the key to tackling bullying effectively is to empower and engage young people in Anti-Bullying work. Examples of their work include leading assemblies, creating resources for tutor time and holding weekly drop in sessions for fellow students to discuss concerns if they are being bullied.

The Equalities Group

Wellsway School is committed to promoting equality, tolerance and harmony amongst its students and prepare them for life in a diverse society. There is a student led group which holds events, creates tutor resources, and leads assemblies to promote good relations and understanding in the school between a diverse range of people from different identities and backgrounds. Appendix A highlights a case study produced by B&NES Local Authority after Wellsway School was selected as an example of excellent practice in relation to the students’ development of LGBTQ.

Them and Us Project

Wellsway School has launched this project to help students understand the importance of demonstrating kindness, showing respect and living without harm not just to those people who are like them but to people who are not like them. How we relate to people who don’t think the same way as us, or believe the same things, is a crucial skill that needs to be taught. PSHE and SMSC lessons support the delivery of this project in conjunction with the student led Community Action Week which takes place each term.

5. Guidelines for students

All students are provided with clear guidance on how to respond to instances of bullying. These guidelines are published in the Student Planner and are reproduced below.

You have a right to feel comfortable and safe at school, as well as on your journey to and from school. If you are being bullied YOU MUST TELL.

Who should you tell?

Your tutor, a subject teacher, Head of House, Learning Mentor or another member of staff with whom you feel comfortable - you choose.

What should you do if you are frightened to tell a teacher?

Tell a friend; tell your parents. They can tell the teacher for you.

What should you do if the bully or bullies threaten they will hurt you more if you tell?

Still tell - AND tell the teacher about these threats.

If you don’t tell, the bullying will go on. You must TELL EVERY TIME.
Advice if you are the bully.

- Are you being unkind or cruel to someone you know?
- Do you know how it makes them feel?
- Do you know that calling someone a name is just as bad as hitting them?
- Do you have to be a bully because it makes you feel big?
- Don’t you know any other ways to be strong?
- Do you know that your friends are probably only your friends because they’re afraid of you?

Stop bullying.

The next time you’re tempted to react in your usual bullying way, stop for a moment and think. If someone treated you like this just think about how you would feel if they behaved differently and smiled or chatted to you instead? So why don’t you smile instead? Try to understand the other person’s point of view.

Different isn't worse - it's just different.

People who are different in some way to you are just the same inside. Take a look around. Everyone is different - so what? You are no better than anyone else. We all have feelings - we are all human.

What do you get when you bully others?

You might think you’re winning lots of friends. Maybe you think that everyone looks up to you because you’re strong? But you’re wrong. Behind your back people dislike you and think you’re a coward because you attack others. They may act in a friendly way, but inside they are probably afraid of you. Is that the kind of friendship you want?

How can you change?

Why are you a bully? Is something about your own life bothering you? Are you unhappy for some reason, perhaps there’s a problem at home? Then that’s what you need to focus on. Get help for whatever is making you the kind of person who torments others.

Remember if you respect others, they will really like and respect you.

6. Guidelines for staff should a student complain of being bullied

All staff employed in the school are expected to adhere to a common set of guidelines in responding to instances of bullying. The term staff includes teachers and support staff. We all have a duty to implement the school policy on bullying. Every complaint of bullying must be taken seriously. Guidelines for staff should a student complain of being bullied can be found in Appendix B.
7. Guidelines for parents of the student being bullied

The school is committed to working in partnership with parents to resolve bullying issues quickly and decisively. The following guidelines offer support and advice to parents.

- If your son or daughter tells you they are being bullied, keep calm! Getting angry and threatening to visit the school or the parent of the other student will terrify them further.
- Praise them for telling you and reassure them that they have done the right thing in letting you know what is happening.
- Try to find out the facts - what exactly has happened?
  What bullying is (and isn't!)

Bullying:

- ... goes on for a while and happens regularly
- ... is deliberate. the other person wants to hurt, humiliate or harm the target
- ... involves someone (or several people) who are stronger than the person being bullied

All three things have to happen together to be called bullying.

Bullying is not:

- a one off fight or argument
- a friend sometimes being nasty
- an argument with a friend

These are not defining bullying.

- Use your best listening skills. Accept your son or daughter's feelings, encourage him/her to talk about any worries by listening.
- Help your son or daughter to think about what s/he would like to happen, and ask how you can help.
- Encourage your son or daughter to talk to his/her Head of House or Learning Mentor. If s/he does not want to then it is advisable for you, preferably with your son/daughter's support, to make the Head of House or Learning Mentor aware that this is how s/he is feeling. Arrangements can be made for you to speak to a member of staff without making other students aware that this is being done. The sooner we know about a problem the quicker we are able to put in place appropriate intervention for all students involved and prevent bullying happening.
- Bullying can destroy confidence and your son or daughter will be feeling vulnerable. Make him/her feel loved, valued and important.
- Talk to him/her about why people bully to reinforce the point that your son/daughter is not the problem.
- When you talk to the school, stay calm and give specific details. Remember that we are partners with you and both want the best for your son or daughter.
- If after you have made a plan with the school and followed it up, you are still not happy with the situation, then please do contact the Assistant Principal (Student Support) who will review the action taken to date and offer guidance and support for future interventions.
- If the bullying problem persists you have the right to follow the school complaints procedure.
8. Wellsway School’s Response to Online Bullying

The use of the internet (Online bullying) and mobile telephones to bully is a very serious matter and can constitute a criminal offence. In the United Kingdom there are criminal laws that can apply in terms of harassment or threatening and menacing communications which would apply to students of secondary school age.

The wider search powers included in the Education Act 2011 and the Department for Education (2018) document titled ‘Searching, Screening and Confiscation.’ gives teachers stronger powers to tackle online bullying by providing a specific power to search for and, if necessary, delete inappropriate images (or files) on electronic devices, including mobile phones.

Where the member of staff conducting the search finds an electronic device they may examine the device for inappropriate content if they think there is a good reason to do so. Following an examination, if the member of staff decides to return the device to the owner, or to retain or dispose of it. They may erase any content if they think there is a good reason to do so.

The staff member must reasonably suspect that the content on the device in question has been, or could be, used to cause harm, to disrupt teaching or break the school rules.

All school staff are aware that behaviours linked to sexting put a child in danger. The Designated Safeguarding Lead should be notified if it is suspecting that sexting has taken place. S/he will make any subsequent decision in relation to the viewing of content on an electronic device. Further guidance in relation to sexting is included within this section of the policy.

The guidelines in relation to consequences and interventions in Appendix B will be followed if a student is found to be involved in online bullying. Wellsway School parents/carers are exceptionally supportive and working closely with them will usually provide the most effective way of punishing a child found to have engaged in Online Bullying activity. The ultimate outcome is to reform the views of the student engaging in the bullying activities and for the student bullied to feel reassured and clear that justice has been done.

At Wellsway School we will deal with reported cases of online bullying in the following way:

Supporting the student being bullied

- Give reassurance that the student has done the right thing by telling someone.
- Make sure the student reporting the issue knows not to retaliate or return the message and will ask the victim to think about what information might be available on the internet.
- Help the student to keep relevant evidence for any investigation (e.g. by not deleting messages/files they’ve received and by taking screen capture shots and noting web addresses of online cyber bullying instances). Check the student understands simple ways to prevent it from happening again, e.g. by changing contact details, blocking contacts or leaving a chat room. Please ask for advice if you require help with technical aspects.

Take action to contain the incident when content has been circulated:

- If you know who the student responsible is, ask them to remove the content after you have had the opportunity to capture screen shots and witness content where possible;
- Contact the host (e.g. the social networking site) to make a report to get the content taken down.
- The Head of House to use disciplinary powers to confiscate phones that are being used to cyber bully. Also ask the student to tell you who they have sent messages on to.
- In cases of illegal content, contact the police, who can determine what needs to be kept for evidential purposes.
How will Wellsway School respond to an incident of Sexting?

The UK Council for Child Internet safety (UKCCIS) have produced guidance for schools on how to respond to the following incidents:

- Person under 18 creates a sexual image of themselves and shares it with another person under 18.
- A person under 18 shares an image of another under 18 with another person under 18 or an adult.
- A person under 18 is in possession of sexual imagery created by another person under 18.

The Designated Safeguarding Lead at Wellsway School will oversee any incidents which meet the criteria outlined above and all actions taken will be taken in line with the UKCCIS guidance. The guidance states that ‘schools may want to invoke their own disciplinary measures to discourage young people from sharing, creating or receiving images...’

Wellsway School will put in place consequence for serious misconduct for any student who is found to have demonstrated behaviour which meets the above criteria. Persistent offenders will receive consequences in line with our anti-bullying policy. Further guidance in relation to sexting can be found in the Wellsway MAT Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy.

9. Online Bullying Advice for Wellsway School Students

- Always respect others – be careful what you say online and what images you send to others and publish on websites.
- Think before you send or publish – whatever you send can be made public very quickly and could stay online forever.
- Treat your password like your toothbrush – keep it to yourself. Only give your mobile number or personal website address to trusted friends.
- Block the bully – learn how to block or report someone who is behaving badly.
- Don’t retaliate or reply!
- Save the evidence – learn how to keep records of offending messages, pictures, video/films or online conversations.
- Make sure you tell an adult you trust, or call a helpline like ChildLine on 0800 1111 in confidence. You could also speak to the provider of the service to see where to report incidents;
- At our school – speak to any member of staff. Your tutor will usually be the best person to start with.
- Finally, don’t just stand there – if you see cyber bullying going on, support the victim by reporting the bullying. How would you feel if no one stood up for you?

This advice is based on information from the Government’s Department for Education.
10. Online Bullying Advice for Parents and Carers

- Be alert to your child seeming upset after using the internet or their mobile phone. This might involve subtle comments or changes in relationships with friends. They might be unwilling to talk or be secretive about their online activities and mobile phone use.

- Monitor internet use closely – your child may be suffering in silence.

- Talk with your children and understand the ways in which they are using the internet and their mobile phone. Look also at the key messages for Wellsway Students on Online Bullying.

- Use the tools available on your computer. Find out how to turn on in-built internet safety features.

- Remind your child not to retaliate to messages.

- Keep the evidence of offending emails, text messages, files/videos or online conversations.

- Be aware, your child could be a cyber bully as well as be a target of cyber bullying.

Report Online bullying:

- Contact your child’s Head of House or Tutor if you think it may involve another student so that we can take appropriate action.

- Contact the service provider (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram).

- If the online bullying is serious and a potential criminal offence has been committed, you should consider contacting the police. The school will support parents/carers in this.

This advice is based on information from the Government’s Department for Education.

Appendix A – B&NES Case Study reflecting the outstanding work to develop equality by staff and students at Wellsway School

E Team Progress

Wellsway School

What we have been doing
- 60 of our lead students have had sessions with Kate Murphy about what Equalities Issues we want to focus on
- We’ve set up an E Team of 12 students and had 2 action planning meetings with Kate and Ms Riddoch
- We have done a number of campaigns around LGBT issues – the most successful was the Stonewall rainbow Laces competition (Mr Burston, PE Teacher is still wearing his!!)
- We’ve done assemblies on homophobic language and behaviour
- We went to the B&NES Equalities Team Event in October and found out what other schools are doing

What difference it has made in our school/setting
- Much better awareness of LGBT issues
- More people are challenging language and behaviour
- The Rainbow Laces campaign triggered lots of discussion about discrimination in sport
- Students are beginning to feel more confident in taking the lead on Equalities issues
- More students feel comfortable being themselves

Comments from pupils / staff / parents
“Three years ago I could tell that one of the key ambitions of the school was that no matter your race, gender or sexuality you could be happy in not only an educational environment but a social one too. Since I have been here we have had many successful events, aiming to raise awareness of LGBTQ issues especially, including the Rainbow Laces campaign and the Inter-house run-a-thon. I had always wanted to be part of raising equalities issues in school and when the opportunity to have a meeting with Kate Murphy arose last term I was more than happy to participate. I have always felt that every person no matter who they are should be accepted and that by working together, no matter how small your contribution, we can make our society a better place for everyone.”  Pupil

What we are going to do next
- We want to change the culture so that all students are comfortable to be who they are
- We want to give people the right and confidence to challenge behaviour, inappropriate language and stereotyping
- We want to make sure everyone knows the consequences on mental health of unkind, bullying or discriminatory behaviour and feel that students respond well to these messages
- We want to set up a Peer Support Group to allow students who are feeling vulnerable to be able to go to peers for support.
- We are going to have some training on challenging HBT language and behaviour
Appendix B

INVESTIGATION STAGE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Stage 1</th>
<th>A member of staff is made aware of a concern in relation to bullying or online bullying and/or prejudiced or discriminatory behaviour or bullying.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Stage 2 | The member of staff receiving such a complaint must respond by completing the following actions:
  - Log the incident on CPOMS (school email account holders) or complete a Serious Misconduct Form (non school email account holders) detailing all known information. The name of the alleged aggressor and their Head of House should be clearly written at the top of the form.
  - If the incident warrants it the member of staff who has received the complaint should take statements and help collect evidence using a Witness Statement Form. |
| Stage 3 |
  - The Head of House of the aggressor will take responsibility for ensuring the issue is investigated and the appropriate actions are taken. S/he will work in conjunction with Head of House (Victim), Learning Mentors (Aggressor and Victim) and Tutor (Aggressor and Victim). If appropriate teachers and Curriculum Directors may be involved as directed by the Head of House.
  - The Head of House of the aggressor will then upload details of the actions taken to CPOMS. |

INTERVENTION/CONSEQUENCE STAGE – AGGRESSOR

Bullying and Online Bullying

Actions taken for the aggressor when it is confirmed that bullying or online bullying (2 or more incidents) of a student has taken place:

Level 1
- Formal letter from Head of House to parents/carers informing of a SLT detention.
- The teachers of the bully and victim are informed by their Heads of House so that they can monitor closely for any inappropriate behaviour/bullying in lessons.

Level 2 - If bullying continues:
- If deemed appropriate by the Head of House the bully will attend mentoring sessions to find solutions to the issues which are arising.
- A conference with parents/carers of the aggressor will be held by the Head of House
- The Head of House may move the bully to a different Tutor Group and/or Learning Group.

Bullying is classified as Serious Misconduct and C4 consequences will be applied by the Head of House (Aggressor) and Assistant Principal (Student Support). These include:
- SLT Detention
- Internal Exclusion

Level 3 - If bullying continues:
- The aggressor will be placed by the Head of House on Step 2 or 3 or the school's behaviour management system.
- Police are available to perform 'restorative justice' activities between the students concerned. Parent/carer permission does not need to be sought for this though it would be expected by the school in most circumstances.
- At this stage a conference with parents, Assistant Principal (Student Support) AND bully present
- A Pastoral Support Plan may be created by the Head of House.

Bullying is classified as Serious Misconduct and C4 consequences will be applied by the Head of House (Aggressor) and Assistant Principal (Student Support). These include:
- SLT Detention
- Internal Exclusion
- Fixed Term Exclusion..

Sexting, Prejudiced or Discriminatory Behaviour or Bullying

Actions taken for the aggressor when it is confirmed that prejudiced based or discriminatory behaviour/bullying has taken place

Sexting, Prejudiced or discriminatory behaviour should be referred by all staff to the Assistant Principal (Student Support) using a Serious Misconduct Form. The Assistant Principal will consider whether there is a need to refer the incident to the Local Authority using the Serious Equalities Incident Form.

Students who demonstrate sexting, prejudiced or discriminatory behaviour will receive the following interventions:
- 1st Offence – A Level 3 consequence will be applied by Head of House (Aggressor) and Assistant Principal (Student Support).
- 2nd Offence – The student will be placed by the Head of House on Level 3 of the school’s anti-bullying interventions as detailed above.

Level 4
If the bullying, online bullying and/or prejudiced or discriminatory behaviour still persist then Permanent Exclusion may follow at the discretion of the Principal.

INTERVENTION STAGE – VICTIM

- A member of the victim’s House team or the tutor will contact parents/carers to explain what is happening with identification of the bully not given - no ‘naming and shaming’.
- Two and four week follow up checks must be diarised and carried out by the Head of House of the victim. The form to be used by the HoH can be found in Appendix C of this policy.
- The HoH may offer the victim a series of session with a mentor to support their emotional stability.
STAFF INVESTIGATING SHOULD CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING:

- Listen to and don’t judge the victim or bully until you have heard both sides of the story and feel educated enough to make an informed decision.
- Tell the victim what you are doing to make sure that they feel comfortable with every step taken.
- Be there for the victim OR bully to talk to if they feel it necessary.
- Be aware of the possibility of a long and complex history behind the story.
- Be ready for the possibility of the bullied becoming the bully.
- The aggressor(s) may be unaware of the unhappiness they are causing. Be constructive. It might be desirable to involve the whole class and/or the tutor/teacher to plan an activity for the tutor group that could support the bully and victim that could focus on relationships.
- Keep an eye on the 'victim'. Check formally whether the bullying is continuing or has ceased. Be aware that victims are sometimes reluctant to admit that bullying is continuing because they feel that ‘telling’ has not worked and has made things worse. Advise the 'victim' on his or her comportment and behaviour if necessary but do not blame the complainant whose self-esteem may already be low as a result of the bullying.

Factors to consider when determining the appropriate sanctions consider:

- Our policy should be followed consistently but we must consider the Special Educational Needs of all parties involved.
- The impact on the victim: was the bully acting anonymously, was the material widely circulated and humiliating, how difficult was controlling the spread of the material?
- The motivation of the bully: was the incident unintentional or retaliation to bullying behaviour from others?
- Technology-specific sanctions for students engaged in cyber bullying behaviour could include limiting internet access for a period of time or removing the right to bring a mobile telephone into school.
Appendix C

Anti-Bullying Follow-Up Procedure

Following an incidence of bullying it is necessary to ensure that the matter has been resolved and the victim of bullying is no longer being treated unfairly or unpleasantly by previous perpetrator or her/his friends or any other party. The follow up checks should be carried out in private so that the student is not worried about other students over hearing.

The completed form should be uploaded to CPOMS by the Head of House of the victim

Two Week after incident follow-up check     Date of this check:

Heads of House should be sure that the above named student is not experiencing any of the following from the bully or others:

1) Verbal comments
2) Unwanted physical contact
3) Electronic/telephone bullying or harassment
4) Non-verbal/non-contact unpleasantness such as unpleasant stares/looks/gestures
5) Other unwanted actions, detail below
